Navigating the Unknown with Current Workplace Challenges

Erica Marson, HR Director – Beaverton School District

Jasmine Cardenas, HR Analyst II – Washington County

Todd Brown, Sr. Risk Consultant – DAS Risk Management

This session will present a panel discussion about navigating the workplace challenges in a post-pandemic world. The discussion will include hiring, insurance, as well as risk and safety challenges that school districts and county hiring managers have had to navigate in current times. It will also include out-of-state workforce challenges specific to insurance, occupational safety, and workers' compensation claims.

10:30 – 10:45 am Networking break

10:45 am – 12:00 pm OR-OSHA Rules & Legislative Updates

Holt Andron, Consultation Program Manager – Oregon OSHA

Bryon Snapp, Statewide Safety Enforcement Manager – Oregon OSHA Safety & Health Div.

During this session our speakers from Oregon OSHA will provide information regarding rule and legislative updates. Information will be provided from both the enforcement and consultative perspectives, along with an overview of how each program works with Oregon businesses and how each uniquely advances the mission of the agency.

Workplace Considerations for Minors and Volunteers

Tamara Russell, Deputy General Counsel – Citycounty Insurance Services

It's been a difficult year for local government agencies to find seasonal workers, and many agencies are seeking to recruit minors and volunteers to fill seasonal employment gaps. Our speaker will highlight employment, legal and safety considerations for minors and volunteers in the workplace.
